Churches for Middle East Peace presents a CMEP1835 Summit

Thursday, March 5, 2020 • Seattle Pacific University
3214 4th Avenue West, Seattle, WA 98119

Event supported by the Social Justice and Cultural Studies Major, Seattle Pacific University

10 am - 11:45 am in Beegle 201: Keynote Address from
Rev. Dr. Mitri Raheb (limited seating open to the public)

“Culture as a Tool for Social Transformation: A Palestinian Christian Perspective”

11:45 am - 12:30 pm: Student lunch and Q+A time with Rev. Dr. Raheb

12:30 pm - 2 pm in Demaray Hall 353:
Student Advocacy Training with Kyle Cristofalo

Come learn about the critical work of culture building and preservation in Palestinian society under the Israeli military occupation. Featuring keynote speaker Rev. Dr. Mitri Raheb, founder and president of Dar al-Kalima University College of Arts and Culture in Bethlehem, Palestine, and co-founder of U.S.-based fundraising and advocacy organization Bright Stars of Bethlehem. Rev. Dr. Raheb is the most widely published Palestinian Christian theologian to date.

Also hear from Kyle Cristofalo, CMEP Senior Director of Advocacy and Government Relations, about the vital role US Christians play in working for just resolutions to conflicts in the Middle East, and ways you can reach out to your elected officials to advocate for a just peace in Israel/Palestine and across the region.
